Committee Member Biography The President's National Security Telecommunications Advisory Committee

Jeffrey Storey
President and Chief Executive Officer
Level 3 Communications, Inc.

Mr. Jeffrey Storey is the president and chief executive officer (CEO) of Level 3 Communications, Inc., and also serves on the company's board of directors. Prior to being named the CEO in April 2013, Mr. Storey was the company's chief operating officer (COO) and president. As COO, Mr. Storey oversaw Level 3 Communications' sales, marketing, customer and network operations, and information technology and business process engineering worldwide. Under Mr. Storey's leadership, he positioned the company to capitalize on the industry transition from legacy services to more efficient and secure technologies. Level 3's global network is foundational to providing these enhanced network capabilities. He also prioritized a company-wide focus on the customer experience, enabling his team to respond more effectively to the complex demands of the market. Before joining Level 3, he served as president and CEO of WiTel Communications, president of Leucadia Telecommunications Group, and in senior executive positions at Cox Communications. He was also a founding member of Cox Business Services. He started his 30-year career at Southwestern Bell Telephone. Mr. Storey holds an undergraduate degree from Northeastern State University and a master's degree in telecommunications from Southern Methodist University.
